East Valley Institute of Technology will directly pay participating school districts approved Summer 2016 fees for courses needed for students to graduate and receive a high school diploma. As funds for this program are limited, students will be granted the scholarship on a first-come, first-served basis. To guarantee timely payment, this application must be submitted by April 29, 2016.

If student fails the course or does not attend EVIT in the fall, student and/or parent will be responsible for reimbursing EVIT for all Summer School fees paid.

Mesa Public Schools Community Education Department refund policies apply. (See MPS Senior High Summer School Registration form and Statement of Awareness)
