Please note:

All orders are prepared and decorated by the Baking and Pastry students of EVIT. Please understand that due to educational priorities and requirements, not all items may always be available. In some instances, it may be necessary to limit the amount of items we can accept for orders. We are here to serve the public insofar as it compliments the students' educational experience. Please don't hesitate to call or email with questions.

Want to order something you don't see on the menu? We are very flexible! Give us a call and we can probably accommodate you!
